

Deepest thanks to co-chair, Matushka Deborah Evansky, both our families, the Northwest Deanery, the parishioners of Holy Assumption of St. Mary Church, members of the Archdiocesan Council, and members of the diocese, all of whom contributed in countless ways to the success of Family Day.

The Saturday following Dormition date seemed to work well. Although it's difficult to get an actual tally, the attendance at this year's Family Day was higher than it's been in several years. And the weather was absolutely perfect (no thanks to me)!

We continually look for ideas and better ways of doing things for Family Day, but receive very little feedback from the Diocesan Council or members of the diocese. Please let us know what we can do to make this event more enjoyable for everyone.

We experimented with something different this year regarding food preparation. Rather than having various parishes volunteer to bring particular items, the parishes of the Northwest Deanery sent in donations to cover the costs, and the food preparation was coordinated by Fr. Patrick, who volunteered his and his parish's time. The deanery provided enthusiastic, cheerful, and hardworking clean-up crews, helpers and servers. Thank you!
